Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."

—Miss ESTHER MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Jews of Britain

URGED TO COLLECT FOR RELIEF FUND

[By Latest Mail.]

LONDON.—In a letter to the Jewish World, Edwin H. Greenfield says that at the present crisis every British subject, whether Jew or Gentile, will be desirous of fulfilling his share in the great struggle that has been thrust upon the country.

"As time proceeds," he says "we shall each of us find some duties to fulfill, but in the present I feel that for him who is compelled to stay at home the most urgent and necessary duty is a response to the eloquent appeal made by the Prince of Wales."

Mr. Greenfield then goes on to propose that every Jewish society or meeting of whatever sort it be should at each meeting make a collection for the fund. The clubs, moreover, he urges, should open subscription lists and forward the result direct to the Prince of Wales relief fund, or, if thought desirable, one central Jewish fund could be organized to which each constituent Jewish society would contribute its collection, the whole being forwarded in the name of the English Jewry to the main fund.

By such means, he adds, those unable to contribute large sums would have the opportunity of sending in their no less smaller contributions.

RECRUITING FOR THE BRITISH ARMY REPORTED AS BRISK

[By Latest Mail.]

LONDON.—Recruiting during August was steady and apparently satisfactory. Toward the end of the month, however, a boom in recruiting set in, particularly in London, and it was quickly evident that Lord Kitchener's second new army of 100,000 men would be raised in the early days of September.

In London on August 31, 4600 recruits joined the ranks, a record total up to that date, and during the days immediately following this standard was maintained. In the previous week the average enrolment per day was 1700.
